

A circle with a shaded sector. A point N is marked on the upper-left part of the circumference. A vertical line is tangent to the circle on the right side.

A circle with a shaded sector. A point N is marked on the upper-left part of the circumference. A vertical line is tangent to the circle on the right side.